The International Civil Servants' Mutual Association of the United Nations Office at Geneva and Specialized Agencies, hereinafter called "ICSMA", which is regulated by these Statutes, is placed under the patronage of the Director-General of the United Nations Office at Geneva.

Article 2: Name – Nature – Objectives – Headquarters

1. ICSMA is a non-profit fund exclusive to the United Nations Office at Geneva and Specialized Agencies, administrated by international civil servants within the United Nations Office at Geneva. The objective of ICSMA is the promotion of mutual assistance among staff members working for organizations of the United Nations Common System whose headquarters are, in principle, in Geneva.
2. Within the framework of its statutory activities, ICSMA is covered by article II of the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations concluded between the Swiss Federal Council and the Secretary General of the United Nations of 11 June and 1 July 1946.
3. ICSMA is headquartered at the United Nations Office at Geneva.
4. The liability of ICSMA is limited to the assets of ICSMA and its entities. ICSMA is the only responsible body for any commitments and liabilities engaged by ICSMA and its entities. The responsibility of the members of the Board of Directors and the Director-General of the United Nations Office at Geneva is formally excluded.
5. The interest of ICSMA takes precedence over members' individual interests.

Article 3: Trust Fund

A Trust Fund for ICSMA was approved by the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (ACABQ) and established by the Secretary-General in 1988 in accordance with the Secretary-General's Bulletin (ST/SGB/188) on "Establishment and Management of Trust Funds".

Article 4: Operational structure

1. ICSMA is comprised of two entities, La Mutuelle and the Provident and Insurance Group of International Officials, hereinafter called "GPAFI".
2. La Mutuelle and the GPAFI are regulated in accordance with the Rules and Regulations of the United Nations Office at Geneva, in so far as they are applicable, by the Statutes, by ICSMA's Internal Rules and Regulations and by Regulatory and Operational Manual.
3. La Mutuelle and the GPAFI operate entirely independently, and each of them is individually responsible.
4. Each entity maintains its own operating budget, approved annually by the Board of Directors.
5. The annual accounts of La Mutuelle and the GPAFI are consolidated, in CHF, at the end of the year for the purposes of ICSMA's annual report.

Article 5: Code of Ethics and Conduct

The Code of Ethics and Conduct sets out the duties and obligations of conduct of the members of the Board of Directors, of the Committees, of the representatives of affiliated organizations and of ICSMA staff members in the performance of their duties. The Code of Ethics and Conduct has been redacted by the members of the Board of Directors and the Representatives of the affiliated organizations within the framework of the Statutes and Regulations in force at ICSMA, and does not replace the Staff Regulations and Statutes of the United Nations or of other affiliated organizations.

Chapter 2: Affiliated organizations

Article 6: Affiliation – Undertaking – Representation – Withdrawal – Exclusion

1. The organizations of the United Nations system whose headquarters are, in principle, in Geneva and who wish their staff members to benefit from the services of ICSMA, may send a written request to the Board of Directors which will make a decision. If the application is rejected, the organization may appeal against this decision to ICSMA's Ordinary General Assembly.
2. To be affiliated, an organization within the United Nations system, whose headquarters is, in principle, in Geneva, must undertake to:
 - a. Make monthly deductions from the salaries of its staff members for the repayment of loans granted by La Mutuelle and for the payment of GPAFI insurance premiums, in accordance with the terms of the loan and insurance contracts concluded between the staff members and ICSMA entities. The organization will have to remit such repayments to the concerned entity of ICSMA by the last working day of the month at the latest, or if not possible, by the mutually agreed deadline. La Mutuelle has priority of payments over the GPAFI;
 - b. Deduct, on a first priority basis after any indebtedness due to the organization, from the final payments due to staff members, either upon separation from service or upon transfer, the balance due on any debts they may owe to ICSMA and to remit such balances to the concerned entity. If the affiliated organization has not taken corrective measures within the prescribed deadline, the Board of Directors will send a new formal notice requesting it to take the corrective measures within a new deadline of 30 days failing which it will request its exclusion at an Extraordinary General Assembly.

6. Once the withdrawal or the exclusion of an affiliated organization has been formally decided, in accordance with the preceding paragraphs, ICSMA's services will no longer be proposed to the employees of the affiliated organization.
